Please join us in sponsoring this community enriching event.

The summer season is getting a boost from Ideal Institute of Technology's Pop-up Market AC in Atlantic City. Shopping for unique gifts has never been more enjoyable for the whole family.

Pop-up tents and trailers customized for retail use will be parked at Brighton Park, Atlantic City, and open for business every Saturday and Sunday starting July 1st, 2023 thru October 21st, 2023 from 11am to 6pm.

Youth and adult students who are interested in an entrepreneurial career will partner with local vendors to create a unique shopping experience for all residents and visitors to the city. Shoppers will be able to find quality gifts everyone on their list, including clothing, jewelry, beauty products, and more.
